

TWO ANGELS CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2010

Description:

Two Angels Cabernet Sauvignon is complex, with cherries and hints of chocolate and vanilla on the nose. It is well-structured with good weight and balance on the palate were the flavors carry through very well to a pleasing finish.

Winemaker's Notes:

The grapes for Two Angels Mayacamas Mountain Cabernet Sauvignon come from vineyards at, or near, the top of the Mayacamas Mountain range, which divides the Napa Valley from Sonoma Valley. This vintage was harvested on November 6, 2010 and was aged for 9 months in (50% new) French oak barrels.

Interesting Fact:

The label art was created by Jacob de Backer in 1591. The theme of the piece is the hilarity of inebriation and the trauma of the morning after. Excessive joy must be countered by equally excessive sorrow, with penitential atonement for pleasure (the first "Drink Responsibly" print campaign).

Serving Hints:

Serve at room temperature with steaks and other grilled meats, roasts and hearty fare.
