

TWO ANGELS PETITE SIRAH 2013

Description:

The 2013 Two Angels Petite Sirah is very dark purple (nearly black) and boasts savory aromas of ripe blackberries, violets, spice and black pepper. Abundant fruit flavors in this well-structured wine are nicely integrated with toasted oak and a touch of black licorice. Although well built with good weight, true to varietal, this wine has a suppleness, especially with airing, not usual for Petite Sirah.

Winemaker's Notes:

This is the first vintage to come from the highly acclaimed Red Hills Appellation in Lake County. By moving to the hills on the eastern side Clear Lake we felt we had a better chance to control fruit from more than one vineyard and possibly adding even more to the complexity of our Petite Sirah. As you might have guessed this appellation is known for its iron rich red soils and in many areas the soils are laced with Obsidian rocks of varying sizes that aid in drainage.

Interesting Fact:

The label art was created by Jacob DeBacker in 1591. The theme of the piece is the hilarity of inebriation and the trauma of the morning after. Excessive joy must be countered by equally excessive sorrow, with penitential atonement for pleasure.

Serving Hints:

Serve at room temperature with robust dishes, including beef, venison, turkey, game birds and semi-soft or hard cheeses.
