DESCRIPTION

Domaine De La Vigne Romaine 2015 displays a shiny garnet color. It offers aromas of black fruits, blackberry, cassis and spices, and the aromas follow through to the fresh, fleshy, silky and balanced palate. The winery feels that this wine is the essence of Gamay.

WINEMAKER'S NOTES

The vines of Domaine De La Vigne Romaine Moulin-A-Vent are planted on "Les Brenays," "En Reclaine," "Les Petits Bois," "la Delatte" and "Les Petits Morier" terroirs. The vines cover 6.2 acres on a Southeast-facing and are over 20 years old, on average. The grapes are all hand-picked and undergo 100% Malolactic fermentation, with the juice aged for 8 months in one-year-old French oak casks.

SERVING HINTS

This wine pairs well with braised brisket, roasted duck breast, spicy dishes, Camembert and aged Gouda cheeses.
