Right in the heart of the magical Waihopai Valley, a million miles from anywhere, lies The Ned – one of Marlborough's most famous peaks – and the childhood playground for founder and wine maker, Brent Marris.

It's a place where nights are two degrees colder and days two degrees hotter. Where possibilities take hold and good times unfold, where the young at heart thrive.

And where there's liveliness and adventure in every bottle.

LET GO AND FEEL

FRESHNESS IN FULL BLOOM

Vibrant ripe peach and lychee aromas with a hint of cinnamon spice give way to a fresh, lengthy finish of nectarines and poached pears.
