- 90 – TASTING PANEL, September 2024

“Made from Loureiro, Avesso, and Arinto grapes, this white wine is from the Lencastre family, who trace their ancestry back to the Royal Family of Portugal from the 15th century. Aromas beam with sliced pears and white flowers. Scintillating acidity arms a lean and crisp mouthfeel. Wet stone, kiwi, and fresh linen are subtle, and carry through to the finish.”

- 93, Best Buy – WINE & SPIRITS, October 2023

“From a property in Penafiel, this is a clean Loureiro with the kind of acidity that makes its buttered-rum richness digestible. It ends on notes of orange zest, full and complete. Delicious freshness and leesy depths make this a lovely Loureiro.”
